THE NATIONAL COALITION OF 100 BLACK WOMEN, INC. RICHMOND METROPOLITAN AREA CHAPTER STATEMENT REGARDING RECENT ATTACKS IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA AND FALCON HEIGHTS, MINNESOTA POLICE SHOOTINGS IN DALLAS, MISSOURI, GEORGIA, AND TENNESSEE

Racism coupled with violence hurts everyone including African American women!

LEO has created:

- A growing public outcry across the country, President Obama said to PBS Newshour “the shootings were symptoms of a broader set of racial disparities in the justice system that aren’t being fixed quickly enough.”
- Continued advocate actions as, “Black Lives Matter”
- Protests to highlight the urgent need to transform policing in America, to call for justice, transparency and accountability

The members of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. Richmond Metropolitan Chapter (NCBW RMAC) passionately express their sincere condolences to the families of the African American men who died as a result of the LEO shootings and those who lost their lives protecting peaceful protesters. Our hearts go out to the families. “We must stand together as Americans to protect one another” says President, Dr. Delta Bowers. These acts have sounded a loud alarm to injustice, hate, and senseless crime that still exists today. NCBW RMAC membership and its leadership extends a thank you to all officials for continued public service and dealing expeditiously with the matters at hand. We are depending on you.

-LaFaye Grooms, Public Relations Chair

“The National Coalition of 100 Black Women advocates on behalf of women of color through national and local actions and strategic alliances that promote its national and international agendas on leadership development and on gender equity in the areas of health, education and economic development.”
